

NEWS FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Office, 12 Pearl Street.—H. W. Tilton, Manager and Lessee.

MINOR MENTION.

Frank D. Marble and Cora B. Gihler were married yesterday afternoon, Rev. Thickett officiating.

Anna C. Haecker is suing Adella C. Spurr in the district court for a foreclosure of a $500 mortgage.

Monday, October 21, is the date set for the address of Judge W. I. Babby, democratic candidate for governor.

Anna P. Harner has brought suit against R. D. Harner for a divorce on the grounds of habitual drunkenness and cruelty.

Regular convocation of Star chapter No. 47, Royal Arch Masons, will be held at Masonic temple Monday night, October 7. By order of the M. E. H. P.

Council Bluffs Tent No. 32, K. O. T. M., will meet in regular meeting Monday evening at their hall at 7:30. All members are requested to be present. Lieutenant Commandant.

The Council Bluffs Athletic association football team has elected Paul C. Aylward, S. manager, D. B. Harnett, secretary and treasurer and J. H. Hess captain of the eleven for this season.

Ed Strow held a reception in his new cigar store last evening and received the congratulations of his friends upon having the finest retail establishment anywhere in the country.

The regular meeting of the Women's Christian association will be held Monday afternoon at 2:30 at Mrs. P. C. Devola's, on Willow avenue and bluff street. Let each member be present.

The funeral of Mrs. P. C. McFarland took place yesterday afternoon from the family residence, 612 Fourth street. The remains were taken on the evening train to Casey, Ia., for interment.

Justice Cook has granted Brown and Rachwitz, charged with stealing a fish net, a continuance until the next session of the court. The attorneys being engaged in cases before the federal court.

Samuel Haas applied to Judge Macy yesterday for a writ of injunction to restrain S. P. Thomas from blowing up the blue grass and cutting down walnut trees on land which Haas leased to him.

Unity Guild will hold a special meeting Monday evening at 7:30 at the home of Mrs. Harris, to arrange for the supper and party to be given October 16 at Woodmen hall. All members are requested to be present.

R. C. Harris has filed information in Justice Walker's court charging Ambrose Sales with malicious mischief, alleging that Sales went into his garden and took out 250 heads of cabbage valued at $12.50. The case will be tried Monday.

This morning, at the 10:30 service at St. Francis Xavier's church, the choir will render Miller's mass. The offertory will be "The Quil Tolls." Miss Charity Babcock has consented to sing Miller's Ave Maria, as an offertory piece.

Walter, son of City Marshal Canning, was thrown from a horse near his home yesterday and stepped on by the horse, sustaining a painful injury to his hip. Ed Lee, a small boy with whom he was riding, also struck his back against the street car track and was also somewhat hurt.

Tony Gerspacher has a queer freak in the shape of a sugar nut which he sent to him by a friend in Grand Island. It is in the exact shape of a woman whose clothes have been seized by her creditors. Even the nose, mouth and eyes are plainly visible, although some one is suspected of having created them with a jack knife.

The Fowler Theatrical company will continue its engagement at Dobay's hall all of this week. The company will be increased to eighteen people and the casts in each play this week will be very strong. A full house last night. "The Conqueror."

The watch advertised to be given away was drawn by W. H. Hyde of Bedford, Ia., who is here attending court. Two going up the river and four-dolls will be given away next Saturday.

Farm loans made in western Iowa at low rates. No delay in closing loans. Fire and tornado insurance written in best of companies. Bargains in real estate. LOUGHEE & TOWLE, 235 Pearl St.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

Charles Gilmore has returned from a trip to St. Louis.

Mrs. H. M. Baird has moved into her new residence, 515 East Broadway.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Keyes and son, Charlie, have moved to Omaha and will be at Hotel Brunswick for the winter.

Misses Cora Henry and Iowa Mullen, two of the teachers in the Omaha school, are guests of Miss Lilla Carter, daughter of Dr. A. H. Carter.

Chancellor D. R. Dungan of Colner university, Lincoln, is spending a few days with Dr. A. H. Carter at 210 Franklin avenue. Later evening he delivered a lecture at the Christian tabernacle.

Harvest Excursion. Via Burlington route, Oct. 8 and 22. Ticket Agent, Council Bluffs.

Nothing like it. The famous Crown piano and orchestra attachment leads them all. Bourgeois Music House, 116 St. Louis street.

The Hardman piano improves with use.

Where to Worship. St. Paul's—Rev. P. McDonald, rector. Litany, sermon and holy communion at 10:30 o'clock. Sunday school at 12 o'clock. Evening prayer and sermon at 7:30 o'clock. Music by vested choir, with organ.

Trinity Methodist Episcopal—Corner Fourth and Ninth avenues. Class meeting at 9:45. Quarterly meeting and preaching by presiding elder at 10:30 a. m. Sunday school at 11:30 a. m. Preaching by pastor at 10:30 a. m. Preaching by pastor at 10:30 a. m. Preaching by pastor at 10:30 a. m.

St. John's Lutheran—James' hall, 17 Pearl street. Rev. G. W. Snyder, pastor. Services at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. Young people's meeting at 8:30 p. m.

Second Presbyterian—Corner of Harmony and Logan streets. Services at 10:45 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Subject for next Sunday: "Following in Labor." Sabbath school at 12 m. Christian Endeavor meeting at 7 p. m. A. L. Sargent, pastor.

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints—Huntington hall, 104 Broadway. Sunday school at 1 p. m. Preaching at 2:30 and 7:30 p. m.

Congregational—Morning subject: "Our Lament, Their Use and Worth." Evening: "The Christian's Heritage."

First Presbyterian—Corner of Willow avenue and Seventh street. Rev. Stephen Phelps, pastor. Preaching by the pastor at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Grace church—Corner Pierce and Union streets. Rev. Simpson, rector. Morning prayer and litany at 10:30 a. m.; evening prayer at 8 p. m. Sunday at 8 p. m. Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints—On Pierce street, three doors west of Glen avenue. Prayer service at 9:30 a. m.; preaching at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. T. W. Williams, pastor.

First Baptist—On Baylis park 10:30 a. m. subject: "Our Lament, Their Use and Worth." 12 m. Sunday school; 3:30 p. m. juniors; 6:30 p. m. Baptist Young People's union; 7:30 p. m. evening service, subject: "Pasture Fields." Every Wednesday evening week services. V. C. Roche, D. D., pastor.

Y. M. C. A.—Men's department at 4 p. m. address by Rev. J. Fairchild Bennett, a converted lawyer from New York, now giving time to evangelistic work. Mrs. Bennett accompanies her husband, and brings a good singer adds very much to the meetings. He will sing today. This will be a big meeting, as the committee is doing lots of work to advertise. No man should fail to attend.

The Young Men's Christian association will hold a short conservation service at 10 o'clock this morning. The meeting will close in time for regular church service. Young men will find a hearty welcome.

"Time." To save 5 per cent on your water bill until October 10.

Hardman and Standard pianos, 113 N. 16th.

HE SETTLED THE TWO SUITS.

Fred Leutinger Succeeded in Preventing Women from Getting His Money.

Fred Leutinger, an old and well known resident of Council Bluffs, committed suicide yesterday morning by drinking carbolic acid. He had been living for several months with his son-in-law, Thomas Maloney, on Avenue E. He had been prominently before the public for a year or so by reason of his connection with two breach of promise suits in which Maloney, at Council Bluffs, had been the plaintiff. The suits were for the plaintiffs, the damages demanded in each suit being upwards of $10,000.

Yesterday when the members of the family arose they were surprised to find that the old man, who was usually an early riser, had not yet left his room. On lifting up his plate at the breakfast table a package was found marked "For Dean and Emma," those being the names of his two daughters. The package was opened and found to contain a large roll of money. There was not another pen scratch found from him.

One looking into his bedroom his dead body was found in the bed. He had taken a dose of the acid with deadly results. Coroner Cook was notified, but will hold no inquest, regarding it as a clear case of suicide.

Chief of Police Scanlan had a conversation with Leutinger last Friday, in which the subject of the breach of promise suits came up. The old man seemed to be very much worried. The theory of his friends is that he was so worried by the suits that he decided to kill himself rather than have it come out in court proceedings. His wealth is estimated at about $75,000.

One looking into his bedroom his dead body was found in the bed. He had taken a dose of the acid with deadly results. Coroner Cook was notified, but will hold no inquest, regarding it as a clear case of suicide.

The deceased Leutinger, who was Maloney's son-in-law, was a well known resident of Council Bluffs. He had been living for several months with his son-in-law, Thomas Maloney, on Avenue E. He had been prominently before the public for a year or so by reason of his connection with two breach of promise suits in which Maloney, at Council Bluffs, had been the plaintiff. The suits were for the plaintiffs, the damages demanded in each suit being upwards of $10,000.

Yesterday when the members of the family arose they were surprised to find that the old man, who was usually an early riser, had not yet left his room. On lifting up his plate at the breakfast table a package was found marked "For Dean and Emma," those being the names of his two daughters. The package was opened and found to contain a large roll of money. There was not another pen scratch found from him.

One looking into his bedroom his dead body was found in the bed. He had taken a dose of the acid with deadly results. Coroner Cook was notified, but will hold no inquest, regarding it as a clear case of suicide.

The deceased Leutinger, who was Maloney's son-in-law, was a well known resident of Council Bluffs. He had been living for several months with his son-in-law, Thomas Maloney, on Avenue E. He had been prominently before the public for a year or so by reason of his connection with two breach of promise suits in which Maloney, at Council Bluffs, had been the plaintiff. The suits were for the plaintiffs, the damages demanded in each suit being upwards of $10,000.

Yesterday when the members of the family arose they were surprised to find that the old man, who was usually an early riser, had not yet left his room. On lifting up his plate at the breakfast table a package was found marked "For Dean and Emma," those being the names of his two daughters. The package was opened and found to contain a large roll of money. There was not another pen scratch found from him.

One looking into his bedroom his dead body was found in the bed. He had taken a dose of the acid with deadly results. Coroner Cook was notified, but will hold no inquest, regarding it as a clear case of suicide.

The deceased Leutinger, who was Maloney's son-in-law, was a well known resident of Council Bluffs. He had been living for several months with his son-in-law, Thomas Maloney, on Avenue E. He had been prominently before the public for a year or so by reason of his connection with two breach of promise suits in which Maloney, at Council Bluffs, had been the plaintiff. The suits were for the plaintiffs, the damages demanded in each suit being upwards of $10,000.

Yesterday when the members of the family arose they were surprised to find that the old man, who was usually an early riser, had not yet left his room. On lifting up his plate at the breakfast table a package was found marked "For Dean and Emma," those being the names of his two daughters. The package was opened and found to contain a large roll of money. There was not another pen scratch found from him.

One looking into his bedroom his dead body was found in the bed. He had taken a dose of the acid with deadly results. Coroner Cook was notified, but will hold no inquest, regarding it as a clear case of suicide.

The deceased Leutinger, who was Maloney's son-in-law, was a well known resident of Council Bluffs. He had been living for several months with his son-in-law, Thomas Maloney, on Avenue E. He had been prominently before the public for a year or so by reason of his connection with two breach of promise suits in which Maloney, at Council Bluffs, had been the plaintiff. The suits were for the plaintiffs, the damages demanded in each suit being upwards of $10,000.

Yesterday when the members of the family arose they were surprised to find that the old man, who was usually an early riser, had not yet left his room. On lifting up his plate at the breakfast table a package was found marked "For Dean and Emma," those being the names of his two daughters. The package was opened and found to contain a large roll of money. There was not another pen scratch found from him.

One looking into his bedroom his dead body was found in the bed. He had taken a dose of the acid with deadly results. Coroner Cook was notified, but will hold no inquest, regarding it as a clear case of suicide.

The deceased Leutinger, who was Maloney's son-in-law, was a well known resident of Council Bluffs. He had been living for several months with his son-in-law, Thomas Maloney, on Avenue E. He had been prominently before the public for a year or so by reason of his connection with two breach of promise suits in which Maloney, at Council Bluffs, had been the plaintiff. The suits were for the plaintiffs, the damages demanded in each suit being upwards of $10,000.

Yesterday when the members of the family arose they were surprised to find that the old man, who was usually an early riser, had not yet left his room. On lifting up his plate at the breakfast table a package was found marked "For Dean and Emma," those being the names of his two daughters. The package was opened and found to contain a large roll of money. There was not another pen scratch found from him.

One looking into his bedroom his dead body was found in the bed. He had taken a dose of the acid with deadly results. Coroner Cook was notified, but will hold no inquest, regarding it as a clear case of suicide.

The deceased Leutinger, who was Maloney's son-in-law, was a well known resident of Council Bluffs. He had been living for several months with his son-in-law, Thomas Maloney, on Avenue E. He had been prominently before the public for a year or so by reason of his connection with two breach of promise suits in which Maloney, at Council Bluffs, had been the plaintiff. The suits were for the plaintiffs, the damages demanded in each suit being upwards of $10,000.

Yesterday when the members of the family arose they were surprised to find that the old man, who was usually an early riser, had not yet left his room. On lifting up his plate at the breakfast table a package was found marked "For Dean and Emma," those being the names of his two daughters. The package was opened and found to contain a large roll of money. There was not another pen scratch found from him.

One looking into his bedroom his dead body was found in the bed. He had taken a dose of the acid with deadly results. Coroner Cook was notified, but will hold no inquest, regarding it as a clear case of suicide.

The deceased Leutinger, who was Maloney's son-in-law, was a well known resident of Council Bluffs. He had been living for several months with his son-in-law, Thomas Maloney, on Avenue E. He had been prominently before the public for a year or so by reason of his connection with two breach of promise suits in which Maloney, at Council Bluffs, had been the plaintiff. The suits were for the plaintiffs, the damages demanded in each suit being upwards of $10,000.

Yesterday when the members of the family arose they were surprised to find that the old man, who was usually an early riser, had not yet left his room. On lifting up his plate at the breakfast table a package was found marked "For Dean and Emma," those being the names of his two daughters. The package was opened and found to contain a large roll of money. There was not another pen scratch found from him.

One looking into his bedroom his dead body was found in the bed. He had taken a dose of the acid with deadly results. Coroner Cook was notified, but will hold no inquest, regarding it as a clear case of suicide.

The deceased Leutinger, who was Maloney's son-in-law, was a well known resident of Council Bluffs. He had been living for several months with his son-in-law, Thomas Maloney, on Avenue E. He had been prominently before the public for a year or so by reason of his connection with two breach of promise suits in which Maloney, at Council Bluffs, had been the plaintiff. The suits were for the plaintiffs, the damages demanded in each suit being upwards of $10,000.

Yesterday when the members of the family arose they were surprised to find that the old man, who was usually an early riser, had not yet left his room. On lifting up his plate at the breakfast table a package was found marked "For Dean and Emma," those being the names of his two daughters. The package was opened and found to contain a large roll of money. There was not another pen scratch found from him.

One looking into his bedroom his dead body was found in the bed. He had taken a dose of the acid with deadly results. Coroner Cook was notified, but will hold no inquest, regarding it as a clear case of suicide.

The deceased Leutinger, who was Maloney's son-in-law, was a well known resident of Council Bluffs. He had been living for several months with his son-in-law, Thomas Maloney, on Avenue E. He had been prominently before the public for a year or so by reason of his connection with two breach of promise suits in which Maloney, at Council Bluffs, had been the plaintiff. The suits were for the plaintiffs, the damages demanded in each suit being upwards of $10,000.

Yesterday when the members of the family arose they were surprised to find that the old man, who was usually an early riser, had not yet left his room. On lifting up his plate at the breakfast table a package was found marked "For Dean and Emma," those being the names of his two daughters. The package was opened and found to contain a large roll of money. There was not another pen scratch found from him.

One looking into his bedroom his dead body was found in the bed. He had taken a dose of the acid with deadly results. Coroner Cook was notified, but will hold no inquest, regarding it as a clear case of suicide.

The deceased Leutinger, who was Maloney's son-in-law, was a well known resident of Council Bluffs. He had been living for several months with his son-in-law, Thomas Maloney, on Avenue E. He had been prominently before the public for a year or so by reason of his connection with two breach of promise suits in which Maloney, at Council Bluffs, had been the plaintiff. The suits were for the plaintiffs, the damages demanded in each suit being upwards of $10,000.

Yesterday when the members of the family arose they were surprised to find that the old man, who was usually an early riser, had not yet left his room. On lifting up his plate at the breakfast table a package was found marked "For Dean and Emma," those being the names of his two daughters. The package was opened and found to contain a large roll of money. There was not another pen scratch found from him.

One looking into his bedroom his dead body was found in the bed. He had taken a dose of the acid with deadly results. Coroner Cook was notified, but will hold no inquest, regarding it as a clear case of suicide.

The deceased Leutinger, who was Maloney's son-in-law, was a well known resident of Council Bluffs. He had been living for several months with his son-in-law, Thomas Maloney, on Avenue E. He had been prominently before the public for a year or so by reason of his connection with two breach of promise suits in which Maloney, at Council Bluffs, had been the plaintiff. The suits were for the plaintiffs, the damages demanded in each suit being upwards of $10,000.

Yesterday when the members of the family arose they were surprised to find that the old man, who was usually an early riser, had not yet left his room. On lifting up his plate at the breakfast table a package was found marked "For Dean and Emma," those being the names of his two daughters. The package was opened and found to contain a large roll of money. There was not another pen scratch found from him.

One looking into his bedroom his dead body was found in the bed. He had taken a dose of the acid with deadly results. Coroner Cook was notified, but will hold no inquest, regarding it as a clear case of suicide.

The deceased Leutinger, who was Maloney's son-in-law, was a well known resident of Council Bluffs. He had been living for several months with his son-in-law, Thomas Maloney, on Avenue E. He had been prominently before the public for a year or so by reason of his connection with two breach of promise suits in which Maloney, at Council Bluffs, had been the plaintiff. The suits were for the plaintiffs, the damages demanded in each suit being upwards of $10,000.

Yesterday when the members of the family arose they were surprised to find that the old man, who was usually an early riser, had not yet left his room. On lifting up his plate at the breakfast table a package was found marked "For Dean and Emma," those being the names of his two daughters. The package was opened and found to contain a large roll of money. There was not another pen scratch found from him.

SOCIAL HAPPENINGS OF LAST WEEK.

Interesting Features of Events of the Past Period.

Mrs. H. B. Jennings on Thursday afternoon entertained a large company of her lady friends at her home, 129 Fourth street. It was a "Salmagundi." The mysterious word attached to the invitations sent many of the recipients to their knees in front of their dictionaries, but no amount of book lore could satisfy the ardent curiosity as to what it meant. The mysterious word was as did the experiences and enjoyments of the afternoon. Tables were arranged as for the usual progressive party, but instead of cards the tests for moving on were as delightful musical tests. On one table ten fine caricatures were placed before the guests, and the graceful fingers were expected to thread each and tie the needed buttons before the top of the belt. At another table were twenty questions concerning a penny. Another progressive contest was determined by the ability to carry a potato in an after-dinner toast. The evening was served at another table, and tidbits were at another, Jackstraws at another, and so on. Scott and Jennings, and Miss Maloney assisted Mrs. Jennings in the reception and entertainment of the guests. Mrs. G. T. Joslin and Mrs. Riser were awarded first and second prizes in the potato contest. A most merry afternoon resulted from the unique plan of entertainment.

An informal gathering of friends had a delightful musical treat at the home of Dr. and Mrs. A. P. Hanchett last Thursday evening. Miss Patrick of Marengo, Ill., who is visiting in Council Bluffs, was the soloist. She sang a kindly lent her skill, and also Dr. B. Barber, another Marengo friend. He handles the violin with rare skill and has so much of the Italian style in his playing that his listeners. Then Mac Hanchett, though younger and less experienced, added to the enjoyment with his violin, and played with excellent taste. Mrs. Maloney was present, and here, where her wealth of song is so appreciated, it is almost needless to say she made the feast of music complete indeed.

Tuesday evening a party of young people gathered at the Christian tabernacle, corner of Myrtle and Broadway streets, and were loaded in large side-wheeled wagons to take an overland trip sixteen miles north to Honey creek, to the farm residence of L. H. Axtel.

The party consisted of L. H. Axtel, Dr. and Mrs. A. P. Hanchett last Thursday evening. Miss Patrick of Marengo, Ill., who is visiting in Council Bluffs, was the soloist. She sang a kindly lent her skill, and also Dr. B. Barber, another Marengo friend. He handles the violin with rare skill and has so much of the Italian style in his playing that his listeners. Then Mac Hanchett, though younger and less experienced, added to the enjoyment with his violin, and played with excellent taste. Mrs. Maloney was present, and here, where her wealth of song is so appreciated, it is almost needless to say she made the feast of music complete indeed.

The party arrived there about midnight and were beautifully entertained by the host and hostess. The party consisted of L. H. Axtel, Dr. and Mrs. A. P. Hanchett last Thursday evening. Miss Patrick of Marengo, Ill., who is visiting in Council Bluffs, was the soloist. She sang a kindly lent her skill, and also Dr. B. Barber, another Marengo friend. He handles the violin with rare skill and has so much of the Italian style in his playing that his listeners. Then Mac Hanchett, though younger and less experienced, added to the enjoyment with his violin, and played with excellent taste. Mrs. Maloney was present, and here, where her wealth of song is so appreciated, it is almost needless to say she made the feast of music complete indeed.

The party arrived there about midnight and were beautifully entertained by the host and hostess. The party consisted of L. H. Axtel, Dr. and Mrs. A. P. Hanchett last Thursday evening. Miss Patrick of Marengo, Ill., who is visiting in Council Bluffs, was the soloist. She sang a kindly lent her skill, and also Dr. B. Barber, another Marengo friend. He handles the violin with rare skill and has so much of the Italian style in his playing that his listeners. Then Mac Hanchett, though younger and less experienced, added to the enjoyment with his violin, and played with excellent taste. Mrs. Maloney was present, and here, where her wealth of song is so appreciated, it is almost needless to say she made the feast of music complete indeed.

The party arrived there about midnight and were beautifully entertained by the host and hostess. The party consisted of L. H. Axtel, Dr. and Mrs. A. P. Hanchett last Thursday evening. Miss Patrick of Marengo, Ill., who is visiting in Council Bluffs, was the soloist. She sang a kindly lent her skill, and also Dr. B. Barber, another Marengo friend. He handles the violin with rare skill and has so much of the Italian style in his playing that his listeners. Then Mac Hanchett, though younger and less experienced, added to the enjoyment with his violin, and played with excellent taste. Mrs. Maloney was present, and here, where her wealth of song is so appreciated, it is almost needless to say she made the feast of music complete indeed.

The party arrived there about midnight and were beautifully entertained by the host and hostess. The party consisted of L. H. Axtel, Dr. and Mrs. A. P. Hanchett last Thursday evening. Miss Patrick of Marengo, Ill., who is visiting in Council Bluffs, was the soloist. She sang a kindly lent her skill, and also Dr. B. Barber, another Marengo friend. He handles the violin with rare skill and has so much of the Italian style in his playing that his listeners. Then Mac Hanchett, though younger and less experienced, added to the enjoyment with his violin, and played with excellent taste. Mrs. Maloney was present, and here, where her wealth of song is so appreciated, it is almost needless to say she made the feast of music complete indeed.

The party arrived there about midnight and were beautifully entertained by the host and hostess. The party consisted of L. H. Axtel, Dr. and Mrs. A. P. Hanchett last Thursday evening. Miss Patrick of Marengo, Ill., who is visiting in Council Bluffs, was the soloist. She sang a kindly lent her skill, and also Dr. B. Barber, another Marengo friend. He handles the violin with rare skill and has so much of the Italian style in his playing that his listeners. Then Mac Hanchett, though younger and less experienced, added to the enjoyment with his violin, and played with excellent taste. Mrs. Maloney was present, and here, where her wealth of song is so appreciated, it is almost needless to say she made the feast of music complete indeed.

The party arrived there about midnight and were beautifully entertained by the host and hostess. The party consisted of L. H. Axtel, Dr. and Mrs. A. P. Hanchett last Thursday evening. Miss Patrick of Marengo, Ill., who is visiting in Council Bluffs, was the soloist. She sang a kindly lent her skill, and also Dr. B. Barber, another Marengo friend. He handles the violin with rare skill and has so much of the Italian style in his playing that his listeners. Then Mac Hanchett, though younger and less experienced, added to the enjoyment with his violin, and played with excellent taste. Mrs. Maloney was present, and here, where her wealth of song is so appreciated, it is almost needless to say she made the feast of music complete indeed.

The party arrived there about midnight and were beautifully entertained by the host and hostess. The party consisted of L. H. Axtel, Dr. and Mrs. A. P. Hanchett last Thursday evening. Miss Patrick of Marengo, Ill., who is visiting in Council Bluffs, was the soloist. She sang a kindly lent her skill, and also Dr. B. Barber, another Marengo friend. He handles the violin with rare skill and has so much of the Italian style in his playing that his listeners. Then Mac Hanchett, though younger and less experienced, added to the enjoyment with his violin, and played with excellent taste. Mrs. Maloney was present, and here, where her wealth of song is so appreciated, it is almost needless to say she made the feast of music complete indeed.

The party arrived there about midnight and were beautifully entertained by the host and hostess. The party consisted of L. H. Axtel, Dr. and Mrs. A. P. Hanchett last Thursday evening. Miss Patrick of Marengo, Ill., who is visiting in Council Bluffs, was the soloist. She sang a kindly lent her skill, and also Dr. B. Barber, another Marengo friend. He handles the violin with rare skill and has so much of the Italian style in his playing that his listeners. Then Mac Hanchett, though younger and less experienced, added to the enjoyment with his violin, and played with excellent taste. Mrs. Maloney was present, and here, where her wealth of song is so appreciated, it is almost needless to say she made the feast of music complete indeed.

The party arrived there about midnight and were beautifully entertained by the host and hostess. The party consisted of L. H. Axtel, Dr. and Mrs. A. P. Hanchett last Thursday evening. Miss Patrick of Marengo, Ill., who is visiting in Council Bluffs, was the soloist. She sang a kindly lent her skill, and also Dr. B. Barber, another Marengo friend. He handles the violin with rare skill and has so much of the Italian style in his playing that his listeners. Then Mac Hanchett, though younger and less experienced, added to the enjoyment with his violin, and played with excellent taste. Mrs. Maloney was present, and here, where her wealth of song is so appreciated, it is almost needless to say she made the feast of music complete indeed.

The party arrived there about midnight and were beautifully entertained by the host and hostess. The party consisted of L. H. Axtel, Dr. and Mrs. A. P. Hanchett last Thursday evening. Miss Patrick of Marengo, Ill., who is visiting in Council Bluffs, was the soloist. She sang a kindly lent her skill, and also Dr. B. Barber, another Marengo friend. He handles the violin with rare skill and has so much of the Italian style in his playing that his listeners. Then Mac Hanchett, though younger and less experienced, added to the enjoyment with his violin, and played with excellent taste. Mrs. Maloney was present, and here, where her wealth of song is so appreciated, it is almost needless to say she made the feast of music complete indeed.

The party arrived there about midnight and were beautifully entertained by the host and hostess. The party consisted of L. H. Axtel, Dr. and Mrs. A. P. Hanchett last Thursday evening. Miss Patrick of Marengo, Ill., who is visiting in Council Bluffs, was the soloist. She sang a kindly lent her skill, and also Dr. B. Barber, another Marengo friend. He handles the violin with rare skill and has so much of the Italian style in his playing that his listeners. Then Mac Hanchett, though younger and less experienced, added to the enjoyment with his violin, and played with excellent taste. Mrs. Maloney was present, and here, where her wealth of song is so appreciated, it is almost needless to say she made the feast of music complete indeed.

The party arrived there about midnight and were beautifully entertained by the host and hostess. The party consisted of L. H. Axtel, Dr. and Mrs. A. P. Hanchett last Thursday evening. Miss Patrick of Marengo, Ill., who is visiting in Council Bluffs, was the soloist. She sang a kindly lent her skill, and also Dr. B. Barber, another Marengo friend. He handles the violin with rare skill and has so much of the Italian style in his playing that his listeners. Then Mac Hanchett, though younger and less experienced, added to the enjoyment with his violin, and played with excellent taste. Mrs. Maloney was present, and here, where her wealth of song is so appreciated, it is almost needless to say she made the feast of music complete indeed.

The party arrived there about midnight and were beautifully entertained by the host and hostess. The party consisted of L. H. Axtel, Dr. and Mrs. A. P. Hanchett last Thursday evening. Miss Patrick of Marengo, Ill., who is visiting in Council Bluffs, was the soloist. She sang a kindly lent her skill, and also Dr. B. Barber, another Marengo friend. He handles the violin with rare skill and has so much of the Italian style in his playing that his listeners. Then Mac Hanchett, though younger and less experienced, added to the enjoyment with his violin, and played with excellent taste. Mrs. Maloney was present, and here, where her wealth of song is so appreciated, it is almost needless to say she made the feast of music complete indeed.

The party arrived there about midnight and were beautifully entertained by the host and hostess. The party consisted of L. H. Axtel, Dr. and Mrs. A. P. Hanchett last Thursday evening. Miss Patrick of Marengo, Ill., who is visiting in Council Bluffs, was the soloist. She sang a kindly lent her skill, and also Dr. B. Barber, another Marengo friend. He handles the violin with rare skill and has so much of the Italian style in his playing that his listeners. Then Mac Hanchett, though younger and less experienced, added to the enjoyment with his violin, and played with excellent taste. Mrs. Maloney was present, and here, where her wealth of song is so appreciated, it is almost needless to say she made the feast of music complete indeed.

The party arrived there about midnight and were beautifully entertained by the host and hostess. The party consisted of L. H. Axtel, Dr. and Mrs. A. P. Hanchett last Thursday evening. Miss Patrick of Marengo, Ill., who is visiting in Council Bluffs, was the soloist. She sang a kindly lent her skill, and also Dr. B. Barber, another Marengo friend. He handles the violin with rare skill and has so much of the Italian style in his playing that his listeners. Then Mac Hanchett, though younger and less experienced, added to the enjoyment with his violin, and played with excellent taste. Mrs. Maloney was present, and here, where her wealth of song is so appreciated, it is almost needless to say she made the feast of music complete indeed.

The party arrived there about midnight and were beautifully entertained by the host and hostess. The party consisted of L. H. Axtel, Dr. and Mrs. A. P. Hanchett last Thursday evening. Miss Patrick of Marengo, Ill., who is visiting in Council Bluffs, was the soloist. She sang a kindly lent her skill, and also Dr. B. Barber, another Marengo friend. He handles the violin with rare skill and has so much of the Italian style in his playing that his listeners. Then Mac Hanchett, though younger and less experienced, added to the enjoyment with his violin, and played with excellent taste. Mrs. Maloney was present, and here, where her wealth of song is so appreciated, it is almost needless to say she made the feast of music complete